Dear parents and carers,

Re: Strike Action - William Harding remained open

As you know, we have had various strike days this year so far. At this moment in time we are not aware of any further union strike action.

I am aware that many other schools had to close or partially close. I am very pleased that at William Harding we did everything we could and we remained open for our pupils and for you as families on all days. Our ability to remain open is due to our staffing structure. It was important to us to remain open and cause minimal disruption to learning.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Best wishes,

Miss Cotchin
Headteacher
