

Knowledge Organiser- Local History (History - Year 2)

Key Vocabulary	Definition
Aylesbury	A large town situated in the county of Buckinghamshire.
Buckinghamshire	The name of the county that Aylesbury, High Wycombe, Marlow and Amersham are situated in.
Coats of Arms	A symbol used to establish identity within a battle. The coats of arms date back to medieval times.
Settlement	A place, typically one which has previously been uninhabited, where people establish a community.
Population	All the inhabitants of a particular place.
Source	A piece of information that gives us an idea about a period of time in History. E.g. pictures, books, documents, news reports.

Waddesdon Manor	Hartwell House	Claydon House

Waddesdon Manor is a country house in the village of Waddesdon, Buckinghamshire, England. It is a listed house that was built in the Neo-Renaissance style of a French Chateau for Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild. The manor now belongs to the National Trust and is one of its most visited properties.	Hartwell House is a country house in the parish of Hartwell, Buckinghamshire, England. The house is owned by the Ernest Cook Trust and has been a Historic House Hotel since 1989. The listed building is Jacobean with a Goegrian front and Rococo interiors. It is most famous for being the home of French king Louis XV111.	Claydon House is a country house in the Aylesbury Vale, Buckinghamshire, England near the village of Middle Claydon. It was built between 1757 and 1771 and is owned by the National Trust. The house is a listed building. The house has been the home of the Verney family since 1620.